Section by Section Summary

Section 311.060 – Removes Reporting Requirement for Employing Felons
Section 311.660 – Authorizes Employment of Felons

Summary of provision/s: Previously, licensees were required to report the employment of any convicted felon to ATC. These provisions eliminated that reporting requirement, and introduced a new provision that solidified the rights of convicted felons to be employed by intoxicating liquor licensees.

Section 311.070 – Expands Allowable Trade Practices

Summary of provision/s: To maintain the integrity of Missouri’s three-tier system, Section 311.070, RSMo, prohibits manufacturers and wholesalers from having a direct or indirect financial interest in a retailer. Section 311.070, RSMo, also contains various exceptions to this prohibition, allowing certain activities that do not rise to the level of a direct or indirect financial interest. This provision clarifies and expands these exceptions to include: adds items to equipment and supplies; defines nonrefrigeration dispensing accessories and allows for the installation of such items; adds items to temporary and permanent point-of-sale advertising materials; adds an item to product displays; allows replacement of damaged or nonfunctioning permanent point-of-sale advertising materials; and clarifies what cleaning services are allowed, to include sanitation services. Additionally, this provision requires wholesalers to conduct these activities in a way that is fair and reasonable to all retailers.

Section 311.070 – Extends Sunday Hours for Distilleries with a Retail License
Section 311.086 – Extends Sunday Hours for Entertainment Districts
Section 311.089 – Extends Sunday Hours for Kansas City and St. Louis
Section 311.096 – Extends Sunday Hours for Malls
Section 311.174 – Extends Sunday Hours for National Landmark; Corrects Statutory Citation
Section 311.176 – Extends Sunday Hours in St. Louis City; Corrects Statutory Citation
Section 311.178 – Extends Sunday Hours in St. Louis County; Corrects Statutory Citation
Section 311.179 – Corrects Statutory Citation to Time of Closing
Section 311.190 – Extends Sunday Hours for Domestic Wineries
Section 311.200 – Extends Sunday Hours for Certain Malt Retailers
Section 311.218 – Extends Hours for Fourth of July Celebration
Section 311.293 – Extends Sunday Hours for Original Package License
Section 311.480 – Extends Sunday Hours for Consumption License
Section 311.482 – Extends Sunday Hours for Picnic License
Section 311.710 – Extends Sunday Hours

Summary of provision/s: Previously, Sunday hours of operation were more restrictive than Monday through Saturday hours of operation and varied across the different retail license types. These provisions have standardized Sunday hours of operation for those permitted to conduct such business to run from 6 a.m. to 1:30 a.m. the following day, seven days a week, except where otherwise dictated by statute.
Section 311.202 – Authorizes Sale of Retailer-Packaged Alcohol for Off-Premise Consumption

Summary of provision/s: This new provision gives retail licensees the ability to package and sell intoxicating liquor for off-premise consumption, as long as they comply with certain requirements. These requirements, which are laid out in detail in Section 311.202, RSMo, include but are not limited to: containers must be filled on premise by an employee twenty-one years of age or older; containers must be durable, leak-proof, sealable and tamperproof; limitations on the number and size of containers sold; requires all patrons to purchase a meal with the intoxicating liquor; and patrons must be provided a dated receipt or electronic record of the purchase. This provision does not allow a wholesaler or manufacturer to furnish the containers that are filled under this provision. A container with a lid that contains sipping holes or openings for straws is prohibited under this provision regardless of whether tape is placed over the opening.

Please note, retail licensees qualifying to sell growlers of beer under Sections 311.196 and 311.201, RSMo, may continue to sell growlers in accordance with those provisions without meeting the requirements set forth in 311.202, RSMo. Growlers used for the purposes of complying with Section 311.202, RSMo, must meet all other statutory provisions within this section.

Section 311.620 – Relaxes Three Year Residency Requirement for Enforcement Personnel

Summary of provision/s: Previously, ATC agent appointees were required to be Missouri taxpaying residents for three years immediately prior to appointment. This provision eliminates the three year requirement and instead only requires that agent appointees be Missouri taxpaying residents at the time of appointment.

ATC has posted this industry circular to answer questions that may revolve around Senate Bill 26 and Senate Bill 126. This circular only addresses state liquor laws, and does not impact local liquor laws that could be more restrictive.
