

Title 11—Department of Public Safety
Division 70—Division of Alcohol and Tobacco Control
Chapter 2—Rules and Regulations

PROPOSED AMENDMENT

11 CSR 70-2.130 Retailer’s Conduct of Business. The Division of Alcohol and Tobacco Control is adding section (18).

Purpose: This rule amendment bans the sale of psychoactive cannabis products at retail stores.

(18) Any retailer selling intoxicating liquor shall not sell or possess any natural or synthetic cannabis derivative, or any cannabinoid intended for human consumption on or about the licensed premise. As used in this section, “cannabis derivative” means all psychoactive substances derived from a cannabis plant in any form whatsoever, including hemp-derived products or any product purporting to give the psychoactive effect of cannabis.

AUTHORITY: section 311.660, RSMo Supp. [2023] 2024. This version of rule filed Feb. 8, 1973, effective Feb. 18, 1973. For intervening history, please consult the Code of State Regulations. Amended: Filed Sept. 24, 2024.

PUBLIC COST: The cost of this amendment to state agencies or political subdivisions from lost tax revenue is unknown. The Division of Alcohol and Tobacco Control anticipates increased operational costs coming from a dedicated fund that will not require any additional general revenue funding: $786,238 in FY26, $588,284 in FY27, and $597,210 in FY28.

PRIVATE COST: The lost profit for ATC licensees as a result of this amendment is unknown. Various ATC stakeholders provided the following as to their anticipated fiscal impact: no fiscal impact and lost sales estimates ranging from $15,732 to $240,000 per year.

NOTICE TO SUBMIT COMMENTS: Anyone may file a statement in support of or in opposition to this proposed amendment with the Division of Alcohol and Tobacco Control Central Office, 1738 E. Elm, Lower Level, Jefferson City, MO
